Children's Privacy Policy

Kern Schools Federal Credit Union's financial services offered through its website are not designed or directed toward children under age 13. The Credit Union has established the following privacy policy in accordance with the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act of 1998:

To benefit the youth Members of KSFCU, the Credit Union established the Rocky Raccoon and Kappa account programs. These programs are designed to educate and inform the children of Kern Schools' Members on saving for the future.

Information Collected:

Kern Schools does not knowingly solicit or collect data from children, and we do not knowingly market to children online. If we receive online information from anyone that we know to be a child, we will only use the information provided to respond directly to a child's request.

Site Traffic and Cookies:

Kern Schools collects statistical information on the time, frequency, and duration of visits to our web site. The gathered information does not contain personal identifiers. Website visitor information is not sold or given to third parties. Cookies are information files that the web browser places on the hard drive of the user's computer when a web site is visited. Cookie files are not used to collect personal information and they are not required to navigate Kern Schools' web site. Kern Schools encourages parents to monitor and participate in online activity with their youth to ensure their children have a fun, safe, and educational experience. If you have any questions or comments regarding our children's privacy policy, please send your inquiries to:
